Roy Timpe called the Special Meeting to order at 9:03 AM in the Maidencreek Township Building meeting room. He explained the purpose of this meeting was to formally accept the health insurance for the full time employees of Maidencreek Township, Northern Berks Regional Police, and Maidencreek Township Authority.

Maidencreek Township recently received notification that Berkshire Health, the current health insurance provider, is not renewing policies. On August 13, 2002 Chester Perfetto our insurance agent, provided information for health coverage through Pennsylvania Blue Shield – High Option, with High Option RX.

All employees have been advised of the change and are in agreement with the change. All employees have received applications. Applications must be submitted for coverage to commence October 1, 2002.

Roy Timpe made a motion, seconded by Gloria Kemmerer, to change the group’s health insurance provider to Pennsylvania Blue Shield –High Option, with High Option RX. The plan will commence on October 1, 2002 provided all applications are submitted by 8/29/02. All Board members voted, “Aye.”
